You can ask others this at our next zoom meeting.

Steps to success:

- 1) Work through your plan making sure you are writing in full sentences.
- 2) Check you have included some description (adjectives) in most of your sentences.
- 3) Sign off withLots of love or Yours faithfully or See you soon, from Sunny.
- 4) Final sentence saying how Sunny is moving on to visit somewhere else.
- 5) Check work for: capital letters, full stops, commas, finger spaces, best handwriting.
- 6) Extra challenge: Can you use a list of three in your writing? The weather is rainy, cold and miserable. I have been to Buckingham Palace, the Tower of London and the Science Museum.

On Monday, Sunny visits his friends at Aslacton Primary School. The journey from the Kalahari Desert to England takes him eighteen hours. It is VERY long and VERY tiring. When he arrives at school, the pupils make him feel very welcome.

Dear Mum and Dad,

It is very strange here (no sand in sight!). I am staying at a bustling village school with a group of lively and mischievous children! They are lots of fun! They have introduced me to some of their favourite games (British bulldog is VERY exciting). The food is quite unusual; I have never tasted anything like a jacket potato with cheese and beans before (I thought a jacket was something you wear!). It's mushy, squidgy and tastes a bit rotten, unlike a spicy desert scorpion.

The weather keeps changing. One minute it's glorious, warm sunshine and the next it's wild blustering wind (I much prefer the beaming rays that we get in the desert). As well as spending time in lessons, I have been out in the village and have seen some of the beautiful countryside. It really is quite astonishing! There are so many towering green trees and pretty bright flowers. I have enjoyed my visit but I am not quite sure I fit in here (the uniform is far too big and my feet don't touch the ground when I sit on their chairs!)

Lots of love

From

Sunny

Sunny thinks he might be a bit too small for Aslacton School.
