Phonics/ spelling	 English	 Maths	Topic activity
Watch phonics lesson 32 together learning the /ou/ digraph. Play buried treasure and select phase 5 then the sound ou. Log in details: u/n: jan21 p/w: home Read a book together for the phase you are reading at Phase 2 Nog in the Fog Phase 3 Quiz Phase 4 Silver Foil Rocket (you might need to sign up for a free account for these links to work)	Watch the online book trailers for 'The Dark', (a trailer is like an advert for a book or a film) here. What descriptive words could you use to describe the book? Listen to Mrs Turk read the first part of the story in the video file. Look at how the dark is drawn in the pictures. Using black playdough, ink, charcoal, wax crayons, or anything else you have draw a picture of the dark. When you are finished, write a description of the dark—which adjectives could you use? Have a look at the adjective word mat to help you, or think of your own. Remember to practice saying each sentence out loud first so that you know what you are going to write.	Look through the PDF slides on halving and complete the tasks. Link for last challenge: Topmarks Game Here is a supporting video that introduces halves. Extra challenge: When you make your lunch or tea today, can you cut your food into halves? 	 In our science this week we are thinking about the seasons. Can you name all 4 of the seasons? Have a look at the picture on page 2. Can you decide which part of the picture is linked to each season? Why do you think that? Watch the BBC teach clip on the seasons. Could you name each of the seasons as you saw them? Think about what makes each season special. How do you know which season it is? Over the next few days take some photographs that show that it is Winter and share them with us on email.
