

Owl Class Year 1 home learning pack Friday 8th January

Please see page 2 onwards for resources to support this learning.
You do not need to print the sheets, you can use any pieces of paper to complete the work—the attached are for guidance.

Email

Please email all questions and finished work (scans or photographs) to this address:

owlhomework@corvuseducation.com

Phonics/ spelling	 English	 Maths	  Topic
Watch phonics lesson lesson 33 exploring the /oy/ sound. How many words can you think of with oy in them? Check you know the meaning of these words. Practice spelling them. Can you put them into a verbal sentence? toy, boy, royal, de- stroy, joy Share reading this book together that uses oi and oy A pet tortoise	Listen to the new recording of the story to hear the next part. How do you think Laszlo is feeling now? How would you feel if the dark spoke to you like this? What do you think will happen now? Why do you think that? What do you think Laszlo should do now? He has followed the dark this far but should he carry on? Are you scared of the dark? What scares you about it? What might be scaring Laszlo? Do you think Laszlo should turn back or try to overcome his fears. If you could talk to Laszlo what would you tell him? Would you reassure him and tell him it's ok to be afraid of the dark? Would you tell him to stop being scared and do as the dark says? Do other people in your house agree? Can you use some of the sentence stems we have been using such as "I think...." "I disagree because...." "I agree with... because". For your writing task you are going to write a piece of advice to Laszlo. See page 2 for some hints and tips.	Today we are thinking about sharing equally. There are slides to look at attached to the email and there is a video here which explains this too. Have a go at the questions on the slides—is Mrs Turk good at sharing equally? The sheet for the last task is on the slides and also on page 3 of this document. Extra challenge: Find 5 cuddly toys to help you. Now find some lego bricks or plates from a tea set, or any other toys you like to use. Can you share them out equally with your cuddly toys? How many does each cuddly get? Is it fair and equal?	As we continue to think about the seasons we are going to listen to some music that is called the 4 seasons. Ask your grown-up to play the music on the links to you without telling you which season they are playing. Lie down or close your eyes and listen to the music. Can you guess which season is which? Spring Summer Autumn Winter What gave it away? Have a look of page 4 for some more questions about the music. Now it's your turn to make some music. Compose a sound for each season and play them one after the other. Ask a grown-up to video them and send them to me so I can guess which sound is for which season.

Start your advice as if you were writing to a friend with: Dear Laszlo

Think about what you want to tell him—maybe you could use one of these sentence stems:

I think that...

Don't worry about the dark it...

I am afraid of the dark too but...

I think you should...

Try to tell him why you are saying this:

I am afraid of the dark too but I think the dark sounds kind and you should go and chat to him to see what he wants.

Finish by telling encouraging him for example:

I am sure it will all be ok. From...

Friday 8th January 2021

Can I explore sharing equally?

Now it's your turn:

10 shared between 5 people equals _____

10 shared between 2 people equals _____

20 shared between 10 equals _____

20 shared between 4 equals _____

20 shared between 3 equals _____

20 shared between 6 equals _____

What words would you use to describe this music?

Why do you think this is played quite quickly and brightly?

Can you hear the instruments making sounds that sound like birds tweeting?

What sound would you use to make people think of Spring?

What words would you use to describe this music?

I think this sounds very busy—Autumn is a very busy time of year—what can you think of that happens in the Autumn?

What sounds might you hear in Autumn?

What sound would you use to make people think of Autumn?

Which piece of music was your favourite? Why?

What words would you use to describe this music?

This makes me think of lazing in the hot sun.

What does it make you think of?

How is it different to 'Spring'?

What sound would you use to make people think of Summer?

What words would you use to describe this music?

What does this remind you of in Winter?

Why might it be lots of short notes at the start?

It makes me think of someone stepping carefully on the ice then sliding along!

What sound would you use to make people think of Winter?