

Owl Class Year R home learning pack Wednesday 20th January

On Wednesdays we are going to have ‘

Well-being Wednesdays’.

This is a chance for you to re-group and catch-up on any work and complete a topic based activity.

Please note there are now no class Zoom sessions on a Wednesday.

Work from today

Do email us any catch-up work that you complete today as usual, and only email the topic work from today if you are unable to join the zoom tomorrow as we would love to see your work from today in these sessions instead. Mrs Mundford will lead the Thursday Zoom

Phonics	Today we are learning the sound /oo/. The story today is “Whatever Next” by Jill Murphey. You can watch the story here . The caption action is “oo, oo, zoom to the moon”! Letters and Sounds lesson /oo/
A challenge for today	Have a look at your reflective clothing design from last week. Think carefully about how you are going to make your product. Collect any materials that you need and work with a grown up to start making your reflective clothing. You can choose to glue or sew your fabric together. You might even have the opportunity to watch an adult use a sewing machine. We will continue working on this piece of design work next week so this does not need to be finished today, but we would love to hear about your progress tomorrow.
Something different— some ideas you could have a go at	Go for a walk and see how many different colours you can spot. Join a Draw with Rob art class Do a yoga class . Video call someone you haven’t seen for a while. Bake or make something together and tell us about it tomorrow Play a board game you haven’t played for a while.
