Can I write a speech?

Imagine you are going to be invited into Roz's nest. You are going to make a fireside speech to the rest of the animals about how a peaceful and harmonious community life can be achieved.

While writing your speech think about the following:

- How can you start your speech in a way that will get everyone's attention?

Perhaps use, It is my strong belief that.....

- How should others behave towards one another for a peaceful life together?
- Why is it important that others behave this way?
- What else would make for a peaceful life?
- What kinds of things can be done in the community to benefit others?
- How can you persuade the other animals to listen to you?

You might want to use the speech writing template to help you organise your speech.
