

WORLD
BOOK
DAY

4 MARCH 2021

English, Art and Design

You are going to design a dragon and complete a character profile about it.

What will your dragon look like?

What type of personality will your dragon have?

What will your dragon be called?

Why should you not judge your dragon by its appearance?

Look at pages 2 and 3 for ideas.

Philosophy

“Don’t judge a book by its cover”

What do you think this means?

Kestrel Class home learning – Thursday 4th March

Today is World Book Day!

Our core story for the day is...

Once Upon A Dragon’s Fire by Beatrice Blue.

Book talk

Before you listen to this story, write down three words to describe dragons..

Now click on the link to listen to the author read the story:

Once Upon a Dragon's Fire by Beatrice Blue – YouTube

With an adult or sibling discuss the questions below:

- How do the children show empathy with the dragon?
- What makes you feel better when you are sad or feeling lonely?
- What do you think are the important messages of this story?
 - Can you think of other characters which are traditionally seen as scary and evil?
 - What do you like about this story?
- If you had to describe dragons now you have read the story, would you choose the same three words as before?

CORVUS
EDUCATION

Maths

Follow the link and watch the video clip in bold.

Year 2: Lines of symmetry (draw the whole)

Year 2: Properties of shape

Year 3: Measure length (m)

Year 3: Measurement

Year 4: Add fractions

Year 4: Fractions

What will your dragon look like?

If you need help drawing your dragon, you could follow along with Rob

What will its scales look like?

Will it breathe fire? Or something else: snowflakes, sunshine, rainbows?!

What will your dragon be called?

Mystic

Swift

Silver Flame

Blaze

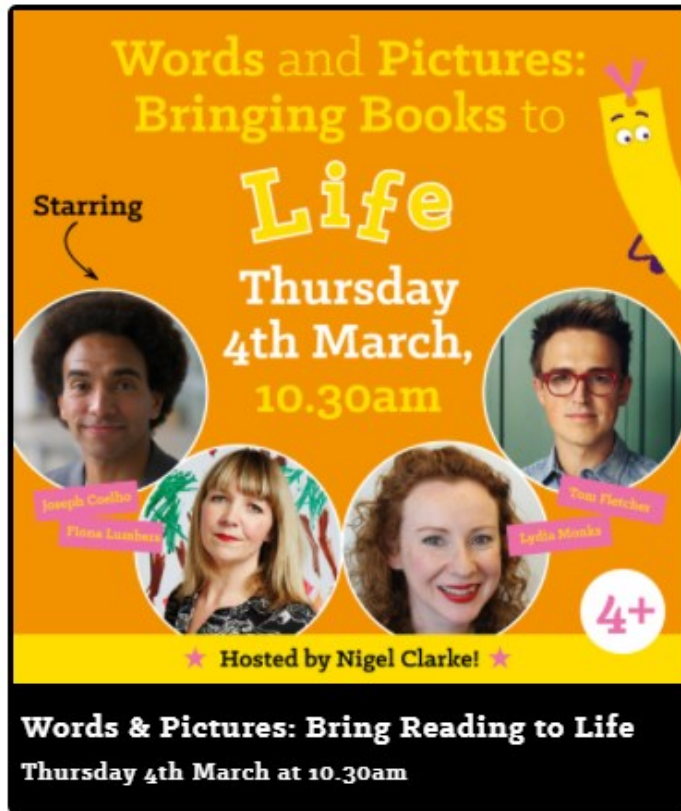

Frost Dragon

What type of personality will your dragon have?

My dragon is...

More World Book Day Activities

Follow this link to watch the official World Book Day song!

Words and Pictures:
Bringing Books to Life
Thursday
4th March,
10.30am

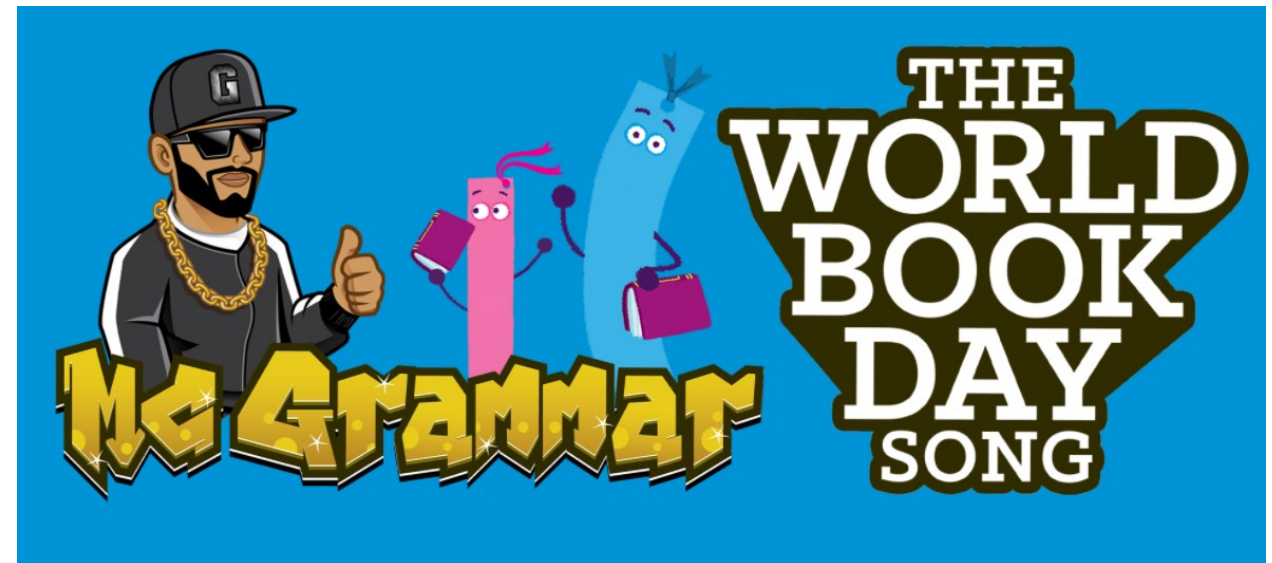

Starring

Joseph Coelho
Flora Lombardi
Tom Fletcher
Lydia Munks

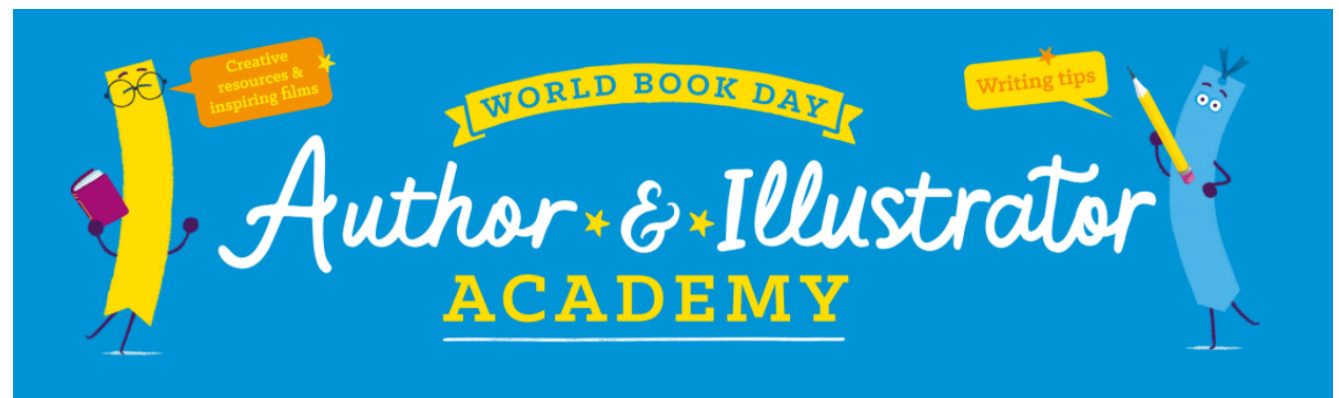

★ Hosted by Nigel Clarke! ★

4+

Words & Pictures: Bring Reading to Life
Thursday 4th March at 10.30am

Meet authors and illustrators behind some of our favourite books by attending an online masterclass. Click here to learn some tips on writing, storytelling and illustrating.

In celebration of all things book related visit the World Book Day website at 10.30am on Thursday to watch a live online event attended by authors and illustrators.